

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Vernon and Marlyce Lohrman exchanged their wedding vows on August 29, 1953, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Vernon and Marlyce gave life and love to three children, and they in turn presented them with two grandchildren; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Vernon spends his spare time fishing and hunting, and Marlyce enjoys working in her flower and vegetable gardens; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Vernon and Marlyce have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 29, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

VERNON AND MARLYCE LOHRMAN DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
M. Michael Rounds, Governor
